Itinerary

Tuesday, December 5

We depart WSCC at 9 am and head to Columbia, TN for lunch (at your expense) at Legends Restaurant. Legends has a varied menu and offers several lunch specials. After lunch, we tour the home of James K. Polk, the 11th President of the US. We then travel on to Clarksville, our home for the next two nights. After a brief respite at the hotel, the Christmas cheer begins with a night full of lights, cookies and great music. First, we go to the Tanglewood House for dinner and a great time creating holiday cookies – you will leave with an apron and a gift box of cookies. We will have a traditional holiday meal and a show by bluegrass band, Passenger Creek. After dinner we head to the Cumberland Riverwalk to stroll through the lights at “Christmas on the Cumberland”, a captivating display with over one million lights. (D)

Wednesday, December 6

After breakfast at the hotel, we head to downtown Clarksville for a quick driving tour before settling in at the Roxy Regional Theatre for a stage production of the holiday classic, White Christmas. After the show, we stroll downtown Clarksville to do a little shopping and to have lunch on your own. After lunch, we meet at Miss Lucille’s Marketplace for a unique shopping experience. This popular location has over 200 booths with antiques, handmade goods, gifts and more.

This afternoon we will board the motorcoach for an hour drive south to the tiny town of Bon Aqua, home of the Storyteller Museum and Johnny Cash’s Hideaway Farm. Owned by Johnny Cash for more the 30 years, he referred to the farm as the “center of my universe”. We will enjoy the holiday decorations, the farmhouse and the legendary “One Piece at a Time Car. Tonight, after dinner, we will go to the Storyteller Museum for a Christmas show featuring a live music show from Mark Alan Cash, Johnny’s nephew. This will be a wonderful evening of nostalgia and much that will leave us delighted and in the holiday spirit. (B, D)

Thursday, December 7

After breakfast at the hotel, we depart for Bell Buckle, an original railroad town filled with antique and other unique shops. If shopping isn’t your thing, you can relax in one of the local restaurants with a homemade pastry and a cup of coffee. After a bit of shopping, we head to Miss Mary Bobo’s Boarding House in Lynchburg for a delicious lunch served family-style. After lunch there will be time for visiting the square in downtown. We then head home and back to WSCC. (B, L)
